81. Margaret Evenhouse (Gerhard Evenhouse, Hendrik Jan Evenhuis, Aaldrik Derks Evenhuis, Derk Aaldriks Evenhuis, Aaldrik) was born on 21 Nov 1922 in Chicago, Cook, Illinois. She died on 18 Feb 2012 in Appledorn Assisted Living Center of Holland, Michigan. She was buried in Lakewood Cemetery, Holland, Ottawa, Michigan.

Nov 21st 1922 - Feb 18th 2012

Margaret (Marge) Lanenga loved jigsaw puzzles, reading cookbooks, and playing croquet in the backyard. She was a woman of quiet worth - not someone whose voice was raised loudest in a conversation, someone who threw money around or wore ostentatious clothes - but someone who consistently impressed others by always doing the right thing. Patient, meek and self-controlled, with an ever-present sparkle in her eye, Marge led by example. __Marge was born in the year 1922, to proud parents Gerrit and Tillie (Van Byssum) Evenhouse. The Evenhouses were of Dutch descent, and lived in the bustling metropolis of Chicago. Marge started off as an only child, but she soon had two younger brothers to play with. She was very close to her siblings, and as children they were inseparable. Never a tomboy, as a child Marge loved nothing more than staying at home and playing with her dolls. She did make an exception for fishing, however, a hobby that she would enjoy her entire life.

When she was in the eighth grade, Marge met the man who would be the love of her life - Edward Lanenga. The two became good friends, but were separated when Edward joined the Army. Marge and Edward kept in touch, with Marge writing letters to him throughout the war. Edward returned home soon after VE-Day in 1945, and one of his first actions was to propose to Marge. She accepted, of course, and the young couple were soon married. __Marge and Edward made their home in Cicero, Illinois. They both loved kids, and looked forward to the time when their own house would be filled with the sound of children's laughter. In 1951, they adopted their first child, a son, whom they named Gary. Two years later, in 1953, they adopted a daughter, Joyce. Marge was a wonderful mother, always kind, patient and supportive. The Lanengas enjoyed taking trips together, especially to Mickelson's Resort, cabins near the State Park in Holland, Michigan. The children remember one year in particular when the whole family was fishing together. It grew late with no sign of fish, so everyone except Marge decided to pack up and go home. Much to everyone's surprise, Marge returned to the cabin later that evening with a muskie in tow so large that it made the local papers! In 1966, the family moved to Holland permanently, in order to be close to Marge's mother. Edward went to work for Donnelly Mirrors and Marge worked as a secretary for Park Township Offices.

Marge was very musically talented, and in her free time she enjoyed playing the piano, the organ, and the accordion. She actually sold her first accordion to help pay wedding costs, but in later years was able to buy another. Marge loved all kinds of music, but was especially fond of gospel. Her favorite group was the Gaither Vocal Band, a gospel group. In fact, religion was an important part of all aspects of Marge's life, and she was a long-time member of the Hardewyk Christian Reformed Church.

After Marge's retirement in 1974, she spent a lot of time with her three grandchildren. These were some of the happiest moments of her life, and her grandchildren truly enjoyed being with her as well. In 1988, her beloved husband Edward passed away, ending a very happy marriage of more than forty years. For the last three years, Marge lived at the Appledorn Assisted Living Center, where her gentle nature and quiet friendliness earned her many new friends. ___Marge Lanenga was a devoted wife, a caring mother and grandmother, and a loyal friend. She will be deeply missed and lovingly remembered by her many friends and family members.

Marge died on February 18, 2012, at the Appledorn Assisted Living Center of Holland, at the age of eighty-nine. She was preceded in death by her husband, Edward. She is survived by her children, Gary (Debbie) Lanenga and Joyce Byrne, both of Holland; her grandchildren, Joseph Ryan Lanenga, Katie Jane Lanenga, and Michelle Joy Byrne; and her brother, Donald (Eva) Evenhouse of Western Springs, IL. ___A visitation will be held on Tuesday from 6-8 p.m. at the Mulder Chapel, Dykstra Funeral Homes, 188 West 32nd St. , Holland. A committal service will be held on Wednesday at 11:00 a.m. at the Lakewood Cemetery, with Rev. Heidi De Jonge officiating. Memorial gifts may be made to Bethany Christian Services. Margaret married Edward Lanenga son of Jan Lanenga and Tunna Boersema on 20 Mar 1946 in Cook County, Illinois. Edward was born on 4 Aug 1921 in Chicago, Cook, Illinois. He died on 23 Oct 1988 in Park, Ottawa, Michigan. He was buried in Lakewood Cemetery, Holland, Ottawa, Michigan.

They had the following children:

- + 133 M i. Gary Lanenga .
- + 134 F ii. Joyce Lanenga .

82. Calvin George Evenhouse (Gerhard Evenhouse, Hendrik Jan Evenhuis, Aaldrik Derks Evenhuis, Derk Aaldriks Evenhuis, Aaldrik) was born on 11 Jul 1924 in Chicago, Cook, Illinois. He died on 29 Jul 2004 in Holland, Ottawa, Michigan. He was buried in Lakewood Cemetery, Holland, Ottawa, Michigan.

He was employed in Evenhouse Bros. Disposal Company, Des Plains, Illinois.

George Evenhouse was a tenderhearted and generous man. He was a man of great personal integrity who treated all he met with real respect. He lent his sense of humor and compassion to his loved ones and in doing so, brightened their lives.

The 1920s were a decade of prosperity in the United States. The younger generations began to see the world in a new light, and fancy cars and flapper parties dominated the upbeat lifestyle of the American jet set. In Cicero, Illinois, Gerrit and Tillie (Van Byssum) Evenhouse were having a celebration of their own with the birth of their son, George, born on July 11, 1924. George was the middle of three children in the family. His father owned a waste disposal company in the Chicago area while his mother stayed home caring for the children. His childhood activities included things like playing marbles, swimming at the Crystal Pool with the family, and weekly visits to his grandparents. The family were members of the First Christian Reformed Church of Cicero.

After graduating from Chicago Christian High School in 1942, George, like many young men of the time, served his country in the U.S. Army during World War II. A good portion of his military service was spent in England working as a medic caring for wounded combat soldiers. After being discharged, George returned to his hometown of Cicero, even though his parents had moved to Holland, Michigan, and he found work as a carpenter.

In 1947, a wonderful thing happened to George – he met his future wife, Trudy Kolean. It just so happened that Trudy attended the same church he did and with some encouragement from his parents, the young couple began dating. After a whirlwind courtship of a few months, George and Trudy were married. The newlyweds established their home in the Chicago area and in 1948, welcomed their first son, Dale, who was later joined by three brothers, Roy, Ronald and Tom.

Following in his father's footsteps, George, along with his brother Don, took the many skills and knowledge learned from his father and started a waste disposal company in Des Plaines, Illinois, called Evenhouse Bros. Disposal Company.

In 1964, George moved his family to Holland, Michigan. Although he retired from his company, he continued to work as a silent partner in several waste disposal companies. This allowed him more time to spend with his wife and sons. The family attended Harderwyk Christian Reformed Church where George served as an Elder. His generous nature reached beyond his family as he often gave a helping hand to friends, family and his church. On one occasion, George donated a mini bike to a missionary worker in Africa who prior to that had been wearied and limited by walking great distances every day. George and Trudy liked to travel, especially with the children, or in later years, to visit far away places. Their travels took them on several memorable trips including ones to England, Israel, a cruise in the Mediterranean Sea and a relaxing trip to Banniff and Lake Louise in Canada.

In 1978, George and Trudy sought out warmer weather by moving to LaBelle, Florida. After their youngest son Tom graduated from high school, they began spending winters in Florida and summers in Holland. While their winter home later moved to Avon Park, Florida, they still returned to George's favorite place on earth - Holland.

Of all the wonderful things in George's life, spending time with his loved ones towered above the rest. He loved to spend time with Trudy, so he often joined her for a round of golf, which was her passion. He enjoyed spending time with friends, golfing, playing tennis, or just visiting with them. George was known as a quiet and unassuming man whose actions spoke volumes of his character. On the other hand, he was also extremely witty and possessed an unforgettable sense of humor, which touched those who knew him best.

George Evenhouse, age 80 of Holland, died on Thursday, July 29, 2004, at his home. Surviving is his wife, Trudy Kolean Evenhouse of Holland, MI; children: Dale and Linda Evenhouse of Wyoming, MI, Roy Evenhouse and fiancé Nancy King of Houston, TX; Ronald and Ruth Evenhouse of Holland, MI, and Tom and Pam Evenhouse of Holland, MI; 8 grandchildren; sister, Margaret Lanenga of Holland, MI; brother, Don and Eva Evenhouse of Western Springs, IL; in-laws: Jean Van Wieren of Holland, MI, Preston Kolean of Zeeland, MI, George and Marilyn Kolean of Holland, MI, Calvin and Carol Kolean of Holland, MI, Leon and Terri Kolean of Haslett, MI, Rose and Jim Harris of West Olive, MI, and Laurel and Jim Boeve of Holland, MI; and nieces, nephews and cousins.

George Evenhouse was a wonderfully compassionate man who illuminated the lives of his loved ones all throughout his time here on earth. He will be greatly missed.

Calvin married Gertrude Marie Kolean daughter of George Kolean and Yitske Jalving in 1947 in Cicero, Cook, Illinois. Gertrude was born on 22 Sep 1927 in Hamilton, Allegan, Michigan.

They had the following children:

- 135 M     i. Pastor Dale Evenhouse .
          Dale married Linda .
- 136 M     ii. Roy Allen Evenhouse was born on 12 Oct 1951 in Oak Park, Cook, Illinois. He died on 23 Aug 2006 in Houston, Harris, Texas. He was buried in Lakewood Cemetery, Holland, Ottawa, Michigan.

Roy resided in Sugar Land, Texas.

Roy Evenhouse was a kind man with a big heart who made others laugh and relax. ___ Roy was born at a time when America was beginning to enjoy the peace and prosperity of post-WWII optimism. Growth in industry and jobs gave workers the opportunity to build homes and start families that launched the baby boom era. One such family was C. George and Trudy Evenhouse of Oak Park, Illinois. They celebrated the birth of their second child, Roy Allen, on October 12, 1951. Roy 's father owned and operated a garbage business in Glen View, which supported a growing family that would eventually include four sons: Dale, Roy, Ron, and Tom.

The Evenhouse family was committed to religious education through church and school. In his early years, Roy attended Wheaton Christian Grammar School outside of Chicago. When the family moved to Holland, Michigan in 1964, Roy enrolled in Holland Christian High School and the family became members of Harderwyk Christian Reformed Church. During his high school years, Roy joined the cheerleading squad and played on the tennis team. Combining these interests with his years of growing up in Waukazoo Woods along the shore of Lake Macatawa, Roy enjoyed recreation that continued throughout his life: tennis, softball, and lots of golf.

When Roy graduated from high school in 1969, he attended Ferris State University in Big Rapids, Michigan before transferring to Grand Valley State University in Grand Rapids. He graduated from Grand Valley, but not before being drafted in 1971 to serve in the US Army stationed in Korea. After graduation, Roy and a high school friend ventured into business. They invested in a candle making operation that took them to craft shows around the country. In the early 1980s, Roy left Michigan, where jobs were in short supply, to find work in Houston, Texas. For a short time he and a friend, Jack Disselkoen, ran a pawn shop. Having an entrepreneurial spirit and a business mind, Roy also earned his brokerage license to assist individuals with financial planning.

In the mid 1980s, Roy married Charlene a woman with a young daughter named Nikki. They became partners in a home furnishing rental business that she had started. Together they grew the business, and eventually Roy became the owner operator when he bought out the business. Though the marriage did not last, Roy remained a big part of his step-daughter's life. He always treated Nikki as a daughter, and she forever held a special place in his heart.

Another very special person entered Roy's life and became "the light of his life"- he called her his "Sweetie". Nancy King, Roy's fiancée, along with her family and close Houston friends, enriched Roy's life. They experienced, too, Roy's unique humor and laid back approach to life. Roy's calls and emails to Michigan included stories of warm, Houston relationships and gave evidence of his deep love for Nancy.

Though living at a great distance from family, Roy stayed in close contact. He always came home for his dad's birthday, and he called his mother often. Every summer Roy came to Michigan to spend an entire week golfing with his family. Visiting Michigan meant stopping in Muskegon where Roy enjoyed his favorite pizza at Topo's. Among his other pleasures in life were reading Tom Clancy novels, doing the news paper crossword puzzle, watching sports, and playing guitar. Roy also had a soft spot for animals. He had a pet cat named Kally. He often put out food for stray cats, and if he could catch them, he would have them neutered and then find them a home.

Friends and family knew Roy as someone who was laid back and open minded. A mark of his character was Roy's ability to accept people for who they were and where they were in life. He was fun-loving, having a quick wit which always brought laughter to those with him. Roy's quiet faith expressed itself best in the way he treated others. He will be mourned and missed by those who knew and loved him.

Roy Allen Evenhouse, age 54 of Houston, Texas, formerly of Holland, died Wednesday August 23, 2006 in Houston. He was preceded in death by his father C. George Evenhouse in 2004. His family includes: Mother Trudy Evenhouse of Holland; fiancée Nancy King of Houston, TX; daughter Nichole Zuziak of Houston; brothers Pastor Dale and Linda Evenhouse of Wyoming, MI, Ron and Ruth Evenhouse of Holland, Tom and Pam Evenhouse of Holland; and many aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and cousins. Visiting will be from 2-4 PM and 7-9 PM Sunday at the Northwood Chapel Dykstra Life Story Funeral Homes of Holland. Services will be 11 AM Monday at The Northwood Chapel Dykstra's 295 Douglas Ave Holland, MI. Burial will be in the Lakewood Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made to Holland Christian Schools.
